

WisPolitics.com: Women Voters in Wisconsin: How age differences, issues and experiences shape opinions

Posted on Tuesday, Sep 15, 2020

Join WisPolitics.com for a free, live virtual lunchtime discussion examining the generational differences between women voters in Wisconsin.

Senate Minority Leader Janet Bewley (D-Mason) and former Lt. Gov. Rebecca Kleefisch will be the featured guests as we explore the experiences, motivations and issues of importance to women voters in Wisconsin and how they vary with age. A panel of women voters will join Sen. Bewley and former Lt. Gov. Kleefisch on the program.

The event is set to run from noon to 1 p.m., via a webinar.

The program will begin with a moderated discussion and then shift to a Q&A session with webinar attendees.

See more on Sen. Bewley: <https://legis.wisconsin.gov/senate/25/bewley/biography/>

See more former Lt. Gov. Kleefisch: <https://twitter.com/RebeccaforReal>

This event is sponsored by AARP Wisconsin.

AARP Wisconsin has launched its “Protect Voters 50+” campaign to support Wisconsinites aged 50 and up as they vote in the 2020 election season. The campaign will provide information on where candidates stand on key issues plus help Wisconsinites cast their votes safely from home or in-person.

Visit aarp.org/wivotes.

REGISTER FOR THIS FREE EVENT:

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSc4knVpiybOGyW2yI3H9L9I-IW3xGx0SJ-BGX_V-aaH1VEVRvw/viewform

On the morning of September 23, you will be sent a link to view the event.

Other upcoming WisPolitics.com events: <https://www.wispolitics.com/category/-events/featured-events/>

