[New Richmond, Wis.] – Today, businessman and former State Representative Adam Jarchow announced his endorsement of State Representative Rob Stafsholt in his campaign for Wisconsin’s 10th Senate District.

“Rob Stafsholt is a fighter for Northwest Wisconsin. In his time in the State Assembly, he has passed some seriously important reform legislation to protect taxpayers, property owners, sportsmen, and small businesses,” said Adam Jarchow. “We need fighters who get results. We need principles. We need people like Rob Stafsholt.”

“Adam Jarchow is a strong conservative leader for our area, and I’m glad to have his support,” said Rob Stafsholt. “Over the past several years, I’ve been proud to lead efforts that enable small business owners to succeed, cut taxes and spending, and help farmers during these tough times. In the State Senate, I will continue to fight tirelessly for Northwest Wisconsin and deliver results.”

Rob Stafsholt is a businessman and 4th generation farmer. In addition to helping manage his family’s farm for over 25 years, Rob’s business experience includes previously running his family’s food processing company and recently starting and operating a waste disposal company. A lifelong resident of St. Croix County, Rob was elected to the State Assembly in 2016 and has been a champion for Northwest Wisconsin. He has a proud conservative record on issues such as economic development, property rights, and sporting rights.

The 10th State Senate District consists of parts of Burnett, Dunn, Pierce, Polk and St. Croix Counties. Learn more about Rob's campaign at Stafsholt4Senate.com.
