

State and federal candidates required to file nomination papers at UW-Madison

Posted on Tuesday, May 26, 2020

Today's Midday podcast covers the Wisconsin Elections Commission's decision to require candidates for state and federal offices to file their nomination papers at a temporary location on the UW-Madison campus due to COVID-19.