

State Supreme Court declines to weigh in on possible ballot fixes

Posted on Friday, Oct 30, 2020

Today's Midday podcast covers a split state Supreme Court declining to give clerks in Calumet and Outagamie counties guidance on how to address thousands of ballots with a printing error that local officials say threatens their ability to count all votes by a state-imposed deadline.