Janesville, Wis. — Today, Congressman Bryan Steil's campaign announced it raised more than $375,000 during the final three months of 2019 and has over $1,000,000 cash on hand entering the election year.

"I am proud to have earned the support of so many families across Wisconsin's First District. During my first year in elected office, I worked hard to be Southeast Wisconsin's voice in Washington. My efforts to fight for workers and families, listening to the concerns and needs of the voters, has resulted in tremendous support. This support shows that Wisconsin is looking for leaders who are accessible, accountable, and willing to roll up their sleeves and find solutions to the problems we all face. I look forward to making my case for re-election between now and November 3rd."
