Madison – Representative Lisa Subeck announced today that she has earned the endorsement of the Building Trades Council of South Central Wisconsin, representing 17 labor unions.

“The Building Trades Council of South Central Wisconsin is pleased to endorse the reelection of Representative Lisa Subeck to the State Assembly,” said Dave Branson, President and Executive Director of the Council. “Lisa is a proven leader in the state legislature standing up for the rights of working people. As our state faces great challenges ahead, Lisa is exactly the kind of experienced and effective leader we need working for us.”

The Building Trades Council joins a growing list of unions endorsing Rep. Subeck’s reelection bid, including the Wisconsin Education Association Council (WEAC), Service Employees International Union (SEIU) Wisconsin State Council, Fire Fighters Local 311, and United Auto Workers (UAW) Region 4 and Wisconsin Council.

“Thank you to the Building Trades Council for supporting my reelections,” said Rep. Subeck. “The work done by members of the Building Trades Council and its 17 trade unions is the foundation upon which our economy and our communities are built. I am proud to have earned their support and look forward to continuing to work together to move Wisconsin forward.”
