WASHINGTON – House Conservatives Fund (HCF) Chairman Mike Johnson released the following statement:

“As a Wisconsin State Senator, Tom Tiffany has been a tireless advocate for the citizens of Northern Wisconsin and a champion of our shared conservative values. In the state legislature, Tom delivered on his promises to cut taxes, reverse a multi-billion-dollar deficit, ban late-term abortions, and protect Wisconsinites’ 2nd Amendment rights. Tom Tiffany is the tested, proven leader Wisconsin needs, and we are proud to stand with President Trump and endorse Tom in his campaign for the 7th Congressional District of Wisconsin.”

About HCF: Founded in 1997, HCF has been the political arm of the Republican Study Committee (RSC), the largest caucus of conservatives in Congress. For more than two decades, HCF has been pursuing its mission of electing and retaining members who are committed to our core conservative principles. HCF’s current roster of 146 members understands that our mission has never been more urgent than it is today.

About Chairman Johnson: House Conservatives Fund Chairman Mike Johnson was elected by his colleagues to lead the Republican Study Committee for the 116th Congress. Since its founding, the RSC has been considered “the intellectual arsenal” and the policy shop for conservatives in the House of Representatives. Mike was elected to represent Louisiana's Fourth Congressional District in December 2016, and immediately began solidifying his distinguished reputation on the Hill as a principled, full-spectrum conservative.
