[Minocqua, WI] – Congressman-Elect Tom Tiffany released the following statement Tuesday night declaring victory in the Wisconsin 7th Congressional District Special Election:

“First and foremost, thank you to all the voters of the 7th Congressional District that cast ballots in today’s election,” Congressman-Elect Tom Tiffany said. “And a huge thank you to all the supporters who worked so incredibly hard to make tonight’s decisive victory possible. This campaign would not have been possible without the support, enthusiasm, and energy you gave.”

“Throughout this campaign, one thing was made resoundingly clear: the people of our district want a strong, experienced voice who will take some Northwoods commonsense to Washington D.C. Someone who will work with President Trump to get our families safely through these rough times and back to prosperity. That has always been my promise to you and I am ready to hit the ground running on day one.”

“Lastly, thank you to my family. This journey would not have been possible without you by my side.”
