[Minocqua, WI] – Tom Tiffany delivered a resounding win earlier tonight in the first debate for the 7th Congressional District special election. Throughout the one-hour debate hosted by WJFW-Channel 12, Tiffany repeatedly demonstrated that he has the values and leadership needed to represent the people of Northern and Western Wisconsin in Congress. Viewers were provided a stark contrast between Tiffany’s “Northwoods Common Sense” platform and the far-left, big-government agenda being pushed by his opponent.

Here are some of the highlights:

Tom Tiffany displayed a deep knowledge of the challenges facing the 7th district and showed he is the only candidate in touch with the needs of our communities.

Tom Tiffany detailed an agenda that resonates with Northern and Western Wisconsin – defending life, protecting our 2nd Amendment rights, securing fair trade deals for our farmers, and helping Wisconsin families get through the COVID-19 pandemic and back to prosperity.

Tricia Zunker doubled down on her support for policies that will restrict Wisconsinites’ 2nd Amendment rights.

Tricia Zunker once again established herself as a fierce defender of abortion.
