WASHINGTON, D.C. – Today, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce announced its endorsement of Scott Fitzgerald (R) to represent Wisconsin's Fifth Congressional District in this open-seat contest. The U.S. Chamber is proud to endorse Fitzgerald, in efforts to promote free enterprise and job-creating policies for businesses across all regions and sectors.

“In difficult times, we are reminded of the importance of having leaders that understand the genius of the American system of government and free enterprise and who are willing to tackle the hard problems that confront our nation,” said U.S. Chamber CEO Thomas J. Donohue. “As our nation faces many challenges and is collectively working to not just reopen our economy but return to growth and expanded opportunities for all Americans, we need leaders like Scott Fitzgerald. He has a proven track record of legislating responsibly and standing up for good policies. The U.S. Chamber is proud to endorse Fitzgerald and looks forward to partnering with him in the future.”

The United States Chamber of Commerce is the world's largest business advocacy organization and represents more than three million business interests.
