[Minocqua, WI] – Today, the campaign for Congressman Tom Tiffany (WI-7) announced he has been endorsed by a bipartisan group of sheriffs from across Wisconsin's 7th Congressional District. A long time friend of law enforcement, Congressman Tiffany has been very outspoken on the recent, radical proposals to defund our police departments. These endorsements demonstrate Congressman Tiffany is the clear choice of law enforcement to represent Northern and Western Wisconsin.

“Our law enforcement officials deserve our thanks, our respect, and better funding to improve officer training and transparency,” said Congressman Tom Tiffany. “They risk their lives every day to keep our communities safe and I am honored to receive their support.”

The current and retired sheriffs endorsing Congressman Tiffany include:

- Florence County Sheriff Dan Miller
- Forest County Sheriff John Dennee
- Iron County Sheriff Paul Samardich
- Langlade County Sheriff Mark Westen
- Lincoln County Sheriff Ken Schneider
- Marathon County Sheriff Scott Parks
- Oneida County Sheriff Grady Hartman
- Polk County Sheriff Brent Waak
- Price County Sheriff Brian Schmidt
- Sawyer County Sheriff Doug Mrotek
- St. Croix County Sheriff Scott Knudson
- Vilas County Sheriff Joseph Fath

- Former Washburn County Sheriff Terry Dryden
