In this time of uncertainty brought on by the COVID-19 crisis, we have made changes to keep our campus and community healthy and safe. But through it all, our guiding principle – The Wisconsin Idea – continues.

- Resources are being delivered – from how to deal with common financial challenges as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic to at-home learning tools – to help people in Wisconsin and beyond.
- New research is underway aimed at understanding and finding a vaccine for the novel coronavirus.
- Our educational and outreach missions continue to advance in new, innovative ways.
