HAGER CITY, WI – During today’s debate with Ron Kind, Derrick Van Orden displayed why the 3rd District needs new leadership at 23 years of Ron Kind.

Derrick showed that he will take action and represent the people of western Wisconsin as they deserve to be represented.

Following the debate, Derrick released the following statement:

In today’s debate, you saw a clear distinction between a career public servant and a career politician. I have spent my life serving our nation, and I will continue to do so as your representative for the 3rd District. Ron Kind has served himself for the last 23 years, trading your tax dollars for influence. We can do better here in Wisconsin, and I will do better as your representative.

Thank you to Wisconsin Public Radio for hosting today’s debate, and I look forward to another substantive discussion on Wednesday with the University of Wisconsin – La Crosse.
