MADISON – Kevin Hoyer of West Salem has been endorsed by the Volunteers for Agriculture® Committee for the 94th state Assembly District. The VFA is the political action arm of the Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation.

Hoyer was endorsed because of his track record partnering with farmers on water issues, promoting land stewardship and advocating for Wisconsin's rural residents. He also supports the needs of rural Wisconsin businesses, including funding of roads and broadband infrastructure.

The 94th Assembly District consists of most of La Crosse County. Hoyer is a Republican seeking candidacy in the Nov. 3 general election.

The Volunteers for Agriculture® Committee is comprised of 18 farmers from across the state and was formed to give farmers a more direct role in electing leaders who best represent agriculture's interests.
