The Wisconsin Right to Life PAC is proud to endorse both Tom Tiffany and Jason Church as they contend to represent the 7th Congressional District of Wisconsin. Both candidates will staunchly defend the right to life and work to build a culture that recognizes the value of all life.

State Senator Tom Tiffany received a full endorsement, while Jason Church received a qualified endorsement due to his stance regarding rape and incest exceptions.

“We are excited to support both candidates as they fight to continue the work of Congressman Duffy. We want to ensure that the office is filled with someone who will serve the people – born and unborn – of the 7th,” shared Kristen Nupson, PAC Director of Wisconsin Right to Life.

The primary election will be held February 18, 2020. The general election will take place on May 12, 2020.
