(WISCONSIN) — Today, Democratic Party of Wisconsin spokesperson Philip Shulman released the following statement in response to the new BLS numbers:

“Tens of thousands of families across Wisconsin are suffering because Donald Trump still can’t be bothered to take the COVID-19 pandemic seriously. His failure from the outset to contain this deadly virus, from taking the word of the Chinese government over our own intelligence community to shunning public health experts, is why people are still left wondering how they’re going to put food on their table or pay their rent. Trump is simply too ineffective to get the job done, and the only way we’re going to get our lives back is electing Joe Biden and Kamala Harris to the White House.”
