(WISCONSIN) — Ahead of Donald Trump Jr.'s visit to Rothschild, Wisconsin, Democratic Party of Wisconsin spokesperson Tommy Kubitschek released the following statement:

“Donald Trump Jr. coming to Wisconsin serves as another reminder of how horribly President Donald Trump has failed Wisconsin. For the last four years, Trump has gutted Wisconsin’s agriculture and manufacturing industries, attacked our health care, and failed to address a pandemic that is threatening our lives and our economy. Now, he thinks he can send his campaign cronies to divide and distract us from his complete negligence and failure of leadership, but nothing can hide the fact that we’ve been abandoned by the Trump administration. Wisconsinites are hurting, and they know that the only way to start building back better is by electing Joe Biden and Kamala Harris this November.”
