(Waukesha, WI) — Prior to Donald Trump Jr's speech at the GOP's Lincoln Reagan Dinner, Democratic Party of Wisconsin spokesperson Philip Shulman released the following statement:

“Whether it's Donald Trump or his son trying to sell a fiction, it doesn't matter — Wisconsinites know they can't afford four more years of this president. His broken promises have led to higher health care and prescription drug costs, massive manufacturing job layoffs, and dairy farms closing at a record rate. Voters are looking for a president who will spend time addressing the real issues in their lives, not going on Twitter tirades and showing a complete disregard for their problems as Donald Trump does on a daily basis.”
