(WISCONSIN) — In response to Ivanka Trump's visit to Wisconsin, Democratic Party of Wisconsin spokesperson Philip Shulman released the following statement:

"Now that Trump and his administration have admitted they are done trying to control the pandemic and falsely claimed we're "rounding the corner," Wisconsinites know more than ever that they can't afford four more years of Trump's failed leadership. As cases surge and nearly 2,000 Wisconsinites have died from COVID-19, Trump and his campaign are continuing to disregard the advice of public health experts and further endanger the Badger state. We know the only way to beat back the pandemic is by electing Joe Biden and Kamala Harris to the White House on November 3rd."
