(WISCONSIN) — In response to Vice President Mike Pence’s upcoming visit to Mosinee, Wisconsin, Democratic Party of Wisconsin spokesperson Philip Shulman released the following statement:

“Trump and his administration have declared they are done trying to manage the COVID-19 pandemic, and his campaign is nothing more than a reminder to voters that he has completely failed to keep Wisconsinites safe. We have nearly 200,000 cases statewide and yet Trump is still doing everything in his power to repeal protections for the 2.4 million Wisconsinites with pre-existing conditions and take away care from the 150,000 Wisconsinites who get health insurance through the exchange. It’s clear Wisconsinites are sick of Trump’s failed leadership and will send Joe Biden and Kamala Harris to the White House on November 3rd.”
