

WisOpinion Poll: Do you agree with the WI Supreme Court's decision to strike down the Evers administration's latest stay-at-home order?

Posted on Thursday, May 14, 2020

A split state Supreme Court on Wednesday struck down the Evers administration's latest stay-at-home order, ruling it should've been issued as a rule to give lawmakers oversight of the process dictating precautions to deal with the COVID-19 pandemic.

The ruling takes effect immediately and leaves Wisconsin without a state directive requiring precautions to limit transmission of the disease.

Read more about the decision here.

Do you agree with the Supreme Court's ruling? Please let us know why in the comments.

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.