

WisOpinion Poll: How should Wisconsin lawmakers proceed on police reform?

Posted on Tuesday, Aug 25, 2020

Gov. Tony Evers has called a special session for Aug. 31 on a package of proposals he released earlier this summer to overhaul police policies.

Evers' call comes in the wake of a Kenosha Police officer shooting a Black man, Jacob Blake, in the back following a domestic disturbance call. The shooting has sparked protests and rioting.

Meanwhile, Assembly Speaker Robin Vos rejected Evers' special session call and has announced plans for a task force on racial disparities, educational opportunities, public safety, and police policies and standards.

How should state lawmakers proceed on police reform? Please let us know below and explain your answer in the comments.

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.