

Zunker edges Tiffany in fundraising during final reporting period in 7th CD race

Posted on Friday, May 1, 2020

Dem Tricia Zunker edged GOP rival Tom Tiffany in fundraising during the final reporting period ahead of their May 12 special election for northern Wisconsin's 7th CD.

Still, Tiffany, a GOP state senator from Minocqua, has outraised Zunker, a Ho-Chunk Supreme Court justice and president of the Wausau School Board, 3-to-1 for the full campaign.

The most recent report, covering April 1-22, shows Zunker had $154,963 in receipts, $139,217 in expenses and had $124,895 in the bank for the stretch run.

Tiffany, meanwhile, reported $145,211 in receipts, $167,863 in expenses and $228,643 in the bank.

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

For the campaign, Zunker has raised $453,093. FEC records show $222,362 of that has been in contributions of $200 or less.

Tiffany has raised nearly $1.4 million.

See Tiffany's report:

<https://docquery.fec.gov/pdf/221/202004309232351221/202004309232351221.pdf>

See Zunker's:

<https://docquery.fec.gov/pdf/923/202004309232342923/202004309232342923.pdf>