JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN – James Foss, Chair of the Wisconsin 1st Congressional District Democrats, offers the following statement in regard to the violence that took place during the Waukesha Christmas Parade just before Thanksgiving:

“The Wisconsin 1st Congressional District Democrats are heartbroken to hear about the senseless act of violence that took place during the Waukesha Christmas Parade on Sunday, November 21, 2021. We Send out our deepest condolences to the families of those injured or killed by the driver of the SUV that crashed into the Parade. We hope that the families of those people find peace and solace, and we hope that justice is served against the individual responsible for this senseless and unwarranted act of violence.”
