

American Bridge 21st Century: Coverage roundup - Ron Johnson made $450,000 in 2017, but paid just $2,105 in state income tax

Posted on Friday, Oct 1, 2021

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Here's what Wisconsinites are reading and watching following yesterday's Milwaukee Journal Sentinel report that Ron Johnson earned at least $450,000 in 2017, but paid a mere $2,105 in state income taxes — less than a jointly-filing couple that earned $40,000:

Milwaukee Journal Sentinel: Bice: Multimillionaire U.S. Sen. Ron Johnson paid a mere \$2,105 in state income taxes in 2017, despite making big bucks

Associated Press: Sen. Ron Johnson paid little in income taxes in 2017

WKBT-TV: ["Johnson reported earning at least \$450,000 and paid just over \$2,100 \[in state income tax\]."](#)

WITI-TV: ["Johnson in the spotlight over his income taxes from 2017 \[...\] despite reporting an income of at least \$450,000. That year, he paid \$2,100 in income taxes."](#)

WISN-TV: "Johnson paid little in state income taxes in 2017 compared to other years."

Salon: Sen. Ron Johnson, worth millions, paid almost nothing in 2017 state income tax—and won't explain why