A new video from American Bridge 21st Century highlights U.S. Sen. Ron Johnson's record of putting his corporate backers first in the Senate.

The video contrasts Johnson's opposition to the expanded child tax credit — President Biden and Democrats' monthly tax cut for 36 million American families — with Johnson's aggressive efforts to secure millions in tax breaks for his richest billionaire campaign backers.

As Johnson prepares to run for reelection in 2022, he'll be forced to answer for selling out Wisconsin families to advance his big donors' interests.
