

Barnes campaign: Holds a 29-point lead in Democratic Primary for U.S. Senate in Wisconsin

Posted on Wednesday, Sep 8, 2021

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Contact:

press@mandelabarnes.com

Barnes Leads in Every Media Market in the State, Highlighting his Broad and Diverse Coalition of Support Across Wisconsin

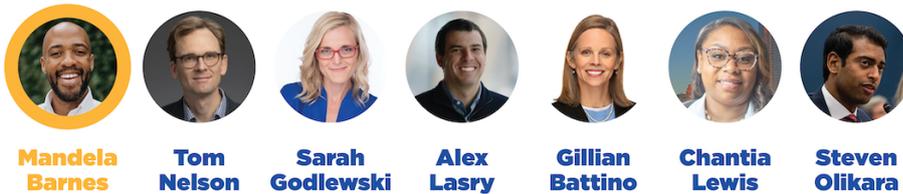

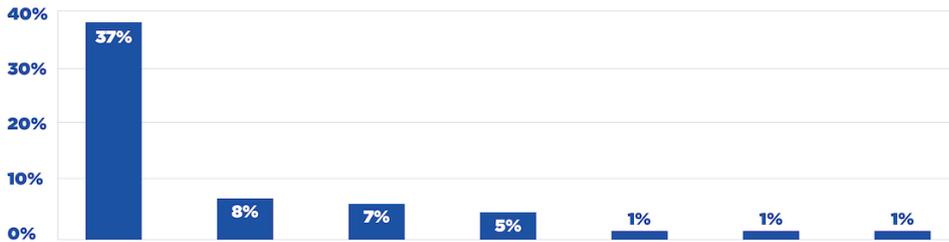

MADISON — Today, Mandela Barnes' campaign for U.S. Senate released new polling that shows that Lt. Gov. Barnes has built a broad coalition of support across Wisconsin, and is the clear Democratic frontrunner in the race for U.S. Senate.

The poll finds that Barnes holds a 29-point statewide lead over the rest of the Democratic field, including a clear lead in every Wisconsin media market. The poll also found that Lt. Governor Barnes is wildly popular among Democrats across the state, and has a distinct advantage across all demographic groups, including men, women, seniors, young people, and independents.

Click here to read the polling memo.

“Wisconsin Democrats are united behind Mandela Barnes as the candidate who can defeat Ron Johnson and deliver real results for working families. They’ve seen first hand the work Mandela has done in every corner of this state, and they know they can trust him to invest in Wisconsin jobs and infrastructure, make universal healthcare a reality, safeguard reproductive freedoms and our Democracy, and tackle the climate crisis head-on,” said Barnes campaign manager Kory Kozloski.

MANDELA BARNES LEADS BY 29 POINTS IN NEW PRIMARY POLL

The poll, conducted by Clarity Campaign Labs, surveyed 698 likely 2022 Wisconsin Democratic primary voters from August 28 – August 30. The results have a margin of error of +/- 3.7%.