KENOSHA - The Milwaukee based Black Leaders Organizing for Communities endorses Angela Cunningham for Kenosha County Circuit Court Judge Branch 6. “Angela’s passion and dedication to justice is exactly what we need right now. Angela becoming a judge would not only be historic for Kenosha but a step in the right direction towards a fair day in court. We are happy to have our first endorsement outside of Milwaukee be Angela for Judge,” stated a representative of BLOC.

BLOC’s focus on promoting Black citizens, leaders, and businesses has made a difference in Milwaukee, and now it will start making a difference in Kenosha County. Angela Cunningham is the first candidate to be endorsed by BLOC outside of Milwaukee.

If elected, Angela will be the first Black judge in Kenosha County. The election is on April 6th, with absentee ballots and early in-person voting available now.
