

DOJ: Firearm recovered in Wisconsin Dells death investigation case

Posted on Thursday, Mar 4, 2021

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Contact: DOJCommunications@doj.state.wi.us

MADISON - The Wisconsin Dells Police Department and Wisconsin Department of Justice (DOJ) Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) announce that the missing firearm has been recovered related to the case filed by the Columbia County District Attorney against Jeremy Lee Mondy, age 34, of Janesville, Wisconsin, in the death that occurred in Wisconsin Dells, Wis. on the morning of Sunday, February 14, 2021.

On February 14, 2021 at 11:37 a.m. Wisconsin Dells police officers were sent to check on the welfare of two people staying in a room at 1015 River Rd. Upon arrival, the officers made contact at the room and were met by Mondy who said he was okay. When they asked about the female, Mondy said she was deceased. Mondy was detained and has remained in custody in the Columbia County Jail. Bail has been set at $5 million.

The firearm was allegedly disposed in the area and has since been safely recovered with ATF explosive detection K-9 assistance.

The family of the decedent is requesting privacy at this time.

Wisconsin Dells Police Department and Wisconsin Department of Justice-Division of Criminal Investigation are working with the Lake Delton Police Department, Columbia County Sheriff's Office, Columbia County District Attorney's Office, Columbia County Medical Examiner's Office, Wisconsin State Patrol, ATF and the Wisconsin State Crime Lab.

Press release: <https://www.doj.state.wi.us/news-releases/update-firearm-recovered-wisconsin-dells-death--investigation-case>