

Evers' budget includes overhaul of juvenile justice system; Lasry launches bid for U.S. Senate

Posted on Wednesday, Feb 17, 2021

Today's Midday podcast covers Gov. Tony Evers' budget proposals to overhaul how Wisconsin treats juvenile offenders, including moving almost all minors out of the adult criminal justice system and revamping the state's approach to youth prisons.