

Fox Cities Chamber of Commerce: Public policy series continues May 11

Posted on Wednesday, Mar 31, 2021

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

FOX CITIES, Wis. (March 31 2021) – The second event of the Fox Cities Chamber of Commerce’s 2021 Public Policy Series is set for Tuesday, May 11. “CEO of the City” will be a virtual panel discussion with Appleton mayor Jake Woodford, Neenah mayor Dean Kaufert, Menasha mayor Donald Merkes, and Kaukauna mayor Anthony Penterman.

The Fox Cities mayors will speak about projects and development in their respective communities and answer participant questions May 11 from 8-9 a.m. on Zoom.

The event is free and open to the community thanks to a sponsorship from AT&T, but participants must register in advance on the Fox Cities Chamber of Commerce website.

The Public Policy Series is a program of the Chamber of Commerce designed to educate, inform, and engage the Fox Cities community with local, state, and federal government officials and topics. Additional series events will be held Aug. 17 and Nov. 3, with format and details to be determined.