APPLETON – Court of Appeals District Three candidate Greg Gill Jr. has eclipsed another major fundraising milestone. Judge Gill received a total of over $43,000 in donations during the last reporting period, pushing the total amount raised by the campaign to over $125,000 since declaring his candidacy in early December.

Over 170 Wisconsinites have contributed to Judge Gill's campaign from every corner of the district. The contributions have come in from thirty-two counties and fifty different municipalities, further signaling a robust grassroots effort by the campaign and its supporters.

"I continue to be truly humbled and grateful for the support I have received. I want to thank everyone who has shared their experiences, donated, or volunteered their time for their continued support and generous contributions. I look forward to continuing to work with voters from around the third district and working to protect the rule of law as an appeals court judge," said Judge Greg Gill

Judge Gill is the clear choice being the only candidate with judicial experience. He has been endorsed by a bipartisan group of ten sheriffs, ten district attorneys, Congressman Mike Gallagher, and over eighty-five judges from around the state, including all of the current Third District Court of Appeals judges and former State Supreme Court Justice David Prosser.
