APPLETON – Court of Appeals District Three candidate Judge Greg Gill has secured three new endorsements from county sheriffs over the past month. This brings the total number of active sheriffs endorsing his campaign to ten.

“I fully support Judge Greg Gill for the Wisconsin Court of Appeals District Three. Judge Gill provides a safe environment for victims of crime to navigate the justice system. He always listens to both sides of the argument and makes an educated, just decision. I am confident his judicial leadership will benefit the citizens of District Three and the State of Wisconsin”

– Outagamie County Sheriff Clint Kriewaldt

“I am honored to have received the support from Sheriff Kriewaldt as well as sheriffs and other law enforcement officials from throughout the Third District. Those in law enforcement put themselves in harm’s way to protect the community and it is humbling that they have the same confidence in me to protect the laws of this great state.”

–Judge Greg Gill Jr.

Judge Gill has also been endorsed by other law enforcement groups and officials such as the Outagamie County Law Enforcement Executives Group, former Outagamie Sheriff Brad Gehring, and former Attorney General Brad Schimmel.
