Today, small businesswoman and State Treasurer Sarah Godlewski will kick off her first statewide tour as a candidate for Senate.

At events in Milwaukee and Brown Deer, Sarah will meet with small business owners, community leaders, and moms to discuss the kitchen table issues that matter most to Wisconsinites, like affordable child care and support for small businesses – especially for women- and minority-owned businesses that have been hit hardest in the pandemic.

The statewide tour will continue later this week with events all across Wisconsin, including in Eau Claire, La Crosse, Ashland, Wausau, Rhinelander, Superior, Green Bay, Appleton, and more as part of Sarah's effort to build the largest Wisconsin grassroots campaign ever.
