On 16th event of statewide campaign launch tour, Sarah will meet with small business owners and local leaders about economic recovery and building long-term Main Street success

On Thursday, former small business owner and State Treasurer Sarah Godlewski will continue her first statewide tour as a candidate for Senate.

Touring two small businesses in Janesville, Sarah will hear from the owners and local leaders about the issues they are facing in economic recovery and how the government can be a better partner for Main Street success.

The visits are a part of Sarah's effort to meet people where they are all across Wisconsin and build the largest Wisconsin grassroots campaign ever. In the first two weeks of her campaign, Sarah traveled over 1,600 miles and held 15 in-person events.
