Today, former small business owner and State Treasurer Sarah Godlewski will continue her first statewide tour as a candidate for Senate.

At events spanning all across Wisconsin, Sarah will meet with small business owners, teachers, the Ho-Chunk Nation, Hmong community members, local leaders, and others to discuss the kitchen-table issues that matter most to Wisconsinites.

The statewide tour is part of Sarah's effort to meet people where they are and build the largest Wisconsin grassroots campaign ever. The tour kicked off on Monday with three events in the Milwaukee-area, and featured stops in La Crosse, Eau Claire, and at the Ho-Chunk Nation on Thursday.
