MADISON — Gov. Tony Evers today issued the statement below regarding the passing of University of Wisconsin System Board of Regents member, Regent José Delgado:

“I was saddened today to learn of the loss of Regent José Delgado. I served with Regent Delgado during my time on the Board of Regents and always appreciated his unique perspective in our conversations about the challenges facing the University of Wisconsin System. Kathy and I offer our sincerest condolences to Regent Delgado’s family and as well as his colleagues on the Board of Regents as they mourn his passing.”
