Earns Endorsements from WI Supreme Court Justices Rebecca Bradley & Dan Kelly

MUSKEGO, WISCONSIN — Today, Judge Shelley Grogan announces her candidacy for Wisconsin Court of Appeals District II and endorsements from Wisconsin Supreme Court Justices Rebecca Bradley and Dan Kelly. Judge Shelley Grogan released the following statement:

“I’m running to serve you as Judge on the Court of Appeals because the people of Wisconsin’s second district deserve a Judge who will always stand up for the rule of law and protect our Constitutional freedoms. I’m proud to have the endorsement of Supreme Court Justices Rebecca Bradley and Dan Kelly.

The Constitution is the law and I will not set it aside or legislate from the bench. I will apply the law written by your legislators and respect the role of the judicial branch to act independently and impartially in every case. I humbly ask for your vote on April 6.”

Justice Rebecca Bradley on her endorsement of Judge Grogan:

“I have worked closely with Judge Shelley Grogan for more than five years and am confident that she will continue to faithfully defend the Constitution and uphold the rule of law. Judge Grogan is the only judicial conservative in this race and I enthusiastically endorse her candidacy.”

Justice Dan Kelly on his endorsement of Judge Grogan:

“I am pleased to endorse Shelley Grogan in her campaign for a seat on the Court of Appeals, District II. She is unfailingly insightful and precise. I am confident our fellow Wisconsinites will be proud to call her a judge of the Court of Appeals.”

Background on the race:

Judge Shelley Grogan currently serves as the permanent Judicial Assistant to Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice Rebecca Bradley. Before working for Justice Bradley, she clerked for multiple Appellate Court Judges.

She has more than 25 years of experience in Wisconsin courts. In addition to her work with Justice Rebecca Bradley, she is the current sitting judge in the City of Muskego, where she has lived for over 25 years. It's where she and her late husband raised their three wonderful children. She is also an Adjunct Professor of Law at Marquette University Law School.

Judge Grogan's opponent was handpicked by Democrat Governor Tony Evers.
