MUSKEGO — Today, Wisconsin's 44th Attorney General, and current Waukesha Circuit Court Judge, Brad Schimel endorses Judge Shelley Grogan for Wisconsin Court of Appeals District II.

"Shelley Grogan is exactly the kind of Judge we need on the Wisconsin Court of Appeals. Her commitment to defending the constitution, upholding our laws, and standing with the men and women of law enforcement makes her the clear choice on April 6. Judge Grogan has my full support." said Attorney General Brad Schimel.

"Attorney General Brad Schimel has been a fierce advocate for law and order in Wisconsin. I'm proud to have his support for our grassroots campaign. I'm running to be a Judge who will stand for the rule of law and protect our constitutional freedoms just like Brad Schimel has for years." said Judge Shelley Grogan.

Background on the race:

Judge Shelley Grogan currently serves as the permanent Judicial Assistant to Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice Rebecca Bradley. Prior to working for Justice Bradley, she clerked for multiple Appellate Court Judges. She has more than 25 years of experience in Wisconsin courts. In addition to her work with Justice Rebecca Bradley, she is the current Municipal Judge in the City of Muskego, where she has lived for over 25 years. It's where she and her late husband raised their three wonderful children. Judge Grogan is also an Adjunct Professor of Law at Marquette University Law School.

Judge Grogan's opponent was handpicked by Liberal Governor Tony Evers. Evers has now appointed ¼ of all Wisconsin Court of Appeals Judges.
