MUSKEGO, WISCONSIN — Judge Shelley Grogan announces the support of the Wisconsin Realtors Association, a grassroots organization that represents business leaders and concerned citizens across the second appellate district.

“Judge Shelly Grogan understands the critical importance of private property rights, political free speech, and making sure that legal issues are resolved based on the law as written. We enthusiastically endorse Shelley Grogan for Court of Appeals District 2.” said Mike Theo, President and CEO of the Wisconsin Realtors Association.

“I am grateful to have the backing of the Wisconsin Realtors Association. Their community of business leaders understand the importance of protecting property rights, individual freedoms, and applying the law as it is written.” said Judge Grogan.

Background on the race:

Judge Shelley Grogan currently serves as the permanent Judicial Assistant to Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice Rebecca Bradley. Prior to working for Justice Bradley, she clerked for multiple Appellate Court Judges. She has more than 25 years of experience in Wisconsin courts. In addition to her work with Justice Rebecca Bradley, she is the current sitting judge in the City of Muskego, where she has lived for over 25 years. It's where her late husband and raised their three wonderful children. Judge Grogan is also an Adjunct Professor of Law at Marquette University Law School.

Judge Grogan's opponent was handpicked by Liberal Governor Tony Evers. Evers has now appointed ¼ of all Wisconsin Court of Appeals Judges.
