I once again offer my congratulations to Tom Barrett, who's been a dedicated servant in our community for four decades. I have no doubt he will make our country proud.

Here in Milwaukee, this is an important moment and I'm ready to step up and lead. We will make Milwaukee safer, we will make our community stronger, and we will make our economy and our environment more sustainable. We will create more family-supporting jobs, and we will continue building on our successes, while rising to address our challenges.

Let's go.
