WEST ALLIS, WI — Jessica Katzenmeyer (D), who is running for the U.S. House of Representatives in Wisconsin's 5th Congressional District, is excited to announce that her campaign has been endorsed by two national progressive groups. Katzenmeyer joins the company of progressive leaders such as Wisconsin's Sen. Tammy Baldwin and Rep. Gwen Moore, as well as Vice President Kamala Harris by gaining the endorsement of LPAC, an organization dedicated to fighting for LGBTQ and women's equality, women's health, and other social causes. Katzenmeyer's campaign has also been endorsed by the Freethought Equality Fund (FEF) PAC, which helps elect humanists who share progressive values and base policy decisions on science and reason. The FEF has recently endorsed Wisconsin's Rep. Mark Pocan for his 2022 re-election campaign.

"We have a progressive vision to move this state and country forward," said Katzenmeyer. "We're humbled to have these initial endorsements from these two incredible organizations. This is only the beginning as our campaign's momentum continues to grow."
