[Waukesha, WI] – Pro-life group Wisconsin Right to Life announced their endorsement of Rebecca Kleefisch’s campaign for governor. Rebecca released the following statement following news of the endorsement:

“As a mom of two daughters, I am a proud advocate for life and the unborn. Wisconsin Right to Life does essential work from the community to the Capitol, fighting for those who cannot speak for themselves. I am proud to have their support during my campaign for governor.

“Tony Evers showed how radical he was when he vetoed born-alive protection legislation and legislation banning abortions based on sex, disability, or race. Wisconsin needs pro-life leadership to protect those who have no voice of their own. I have never wavered from my pro-life views and will never back down from them as your governor.”
