[Waukesha, WI] – Former Wisconsin Lt. Gov. Rebecca Kleefisch expanded her grassroots leadership team in a sign of continued momentum for her campaign. On Monday, Rebecca announced the names of her new congressional district co-chairs. The co-chairs are conservative grassroots leaders from across the state who will add valuable knowledge and expertise to Rebecca’s growing campaign to defeat Governor Tony Evers.

“We are running a grassroots-first campaign. I’m incredibly proud to have the support of these individuals who I know will work tirelessly to take back control of our state,” said Rebecca Kleefisch. “Our team is already on the ground doing the important work of organizing with conservative activists for the 2022 election. We are ready to fire Tony Evers.”

Rebecca continues to position herself as the only conservative with the momentum and support capable of defeating Tony Evers next fall. The rollout of co-chairs for the Grassroots Leadership Team follows a previous announcement of statewide leaders that the campaign made in October.
