Kenosha - Alex Lasry announced today the endorsements of current Kenosha County Executive Jim Kreuser and former Kenosha County Executive John Collins.

"I am proud to endorse Alex Lasry to be Wisconsin's next U.S. Senator," said County Executive Jim Kreuser. "I know Alex will be good for Kenosha County and Wisconsin. Alex will bring his pragmatic business sense to Washington to strengthen the critical partnerships with our local governments."

Jim Kreuser has served as Kenosha County Executive since 2008. Prior to his election to his current position, Kreuser represented Kenosha in the Wisconsin State Assembly from 1993-2008, including serving as the Democratic Leader of the Assembly from 2003-2008.

"Alex is a tremendous candidate and will be a great United States Senator," said former Kenosha County Executive John Collins. "We urgently need bold leadership during these challenging times. Alex will bring great energy and a fresh perspective to Washington to get things done for Wisconsin."

John Collins is a longtime Democratic activist and served as the Kenosha County Executive from 1986 to 1998.

"I am honored that my campaign has earned the support of these two great Kenosha leaders," said Alex Lasry. "Their endorsements reflect the statewide support we've received in our efforts to defeat Ron Johnson."

The Democratic Primary Election for the United States Senate will be held Tuesday, August 9th, 2022. For more information about Alex Lasry and his campaign, visit www.alexlasry.com.
