Madison – Representative Lisa Subeck, today announced her endorsement of Alex Lasry to be Wisconsin’s next U.S. Senator.

“Alex Lasry is the right choice to represent Wisconsinites in the U.S. Senate,” said Rep. Subeck. “The people of Wisconsin are tired of all the political fighting in Washington and are ready for a Senator that will go to Congress and get things done to improve their lives. Through his work with the Bucks, Alex has a proven record of doing just that.”

“Alex is building the strong statewide campaign that it will take to beat Ron Johnson next fall,” continued Rep. Subeck. “I’m proud to be a part of the team that is going to help protect the Democratic Majority in the Senate, and I can’t wait to get to work.”

“During her time in the State Assembly on the Madison City Council, Rep. Subeck has been a tireless advocate for the people of Madison and Wisconsin,” said Alex Lasry. “I’m honored to have her support, and I look forward to working with her to win this seat and to deliver for people across our state.”

Rep. Subeck joins a growing list of endorsements for Lasry, including fellow Madison-area State Representative Shelia Stubbs and several Wisconsin unions including Teamsters Joint Council 39, IBEW Local 494, Operating Engineers Local 139, IATSE Local 18, and the Wisconsin Pipe Trades Association.

The Democratic Primary Election for the United States Senate will be held Tuesday, August 9th, 2022. For more information about Alex Lasry’s campaign, visit www.alexlasry.com.
