Milwaukee County War Memorial Center,
750 N. Lincoln Memorial Drive,
Milwaukee.

Damian Buchman, founder and Executive Director of The Ability Center and Franklin Cumberbatch, VP, Engagement at Bader Philanthropies will share how their passion for service to others and their lived experiences led them to create The Opportunity Center. The Opportunity Center is a place where everyone can find activities to improve their quality of life, regardless of their age, race, income, religion, gender, physical or cognitive ability. It is where every user will be inspired to create the best version of themselves. It is the country's first combined community center and urban sports tourism center designed and programmed for ALL

Rotary meetings are open to members, invited guests and media.
