

MPS board candidate town hall hosted by Youth Empowered in the Struggle

Posted on Thursday, Jan 21, 2021

(Milwaukee, Wisconsin) – Happening TONIGHT at 4 pm CST, Youth Empowered in the Struggle (YES!), the Latinx and multiracial youth arm of Voces de la Frontera Action, hosts the Milwaukee Public School Board Candidate Town Hall. Tune in and hear from candidates as they answer questions from MPS student leaders and community members on how they will serve on the board.

You can tune in as an “attendee” on the Zoom webinar by registering with this link: https://zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_hj_Y4V_xRx2qOvr8pYP_Xg. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar.

Participating candidates include:

Abbie Fishman- District 5

Jilly Gokalgandhi- District 5

Alex Brower- District 5

Victor Nwagbaraocha- District 4

Dana Kelley- District 4

Henry Leonard- District 7

Aisha Carr- District 4

Cheryl Hayes- District 5

Press are also invited to interview YES! youth leaders after the Town Hall on why Latinx and multiracial youth organized this town hall, and more broadly why

Milwaukee's Black and Brown youth are the future. YES! organizers see getting involved in local politics as a critical piece in realizing immigrant and racial justice in Milwaukee in 2021 and onwards. If you are interested in arranging an interview with a YES! youth organizer, please reach out to Communications Director Jacquelyn Kovarik: 414-436-9822 or jacquelyn@vdlf.org.

Thank you and we hope you tune in!
