

MPS: Schools move to virtual learning due to power outages

Posted on Thursday, Dec 16, 2021

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

MILWAUKEE (December 16, 2021) — Milwaukee Public Schools has announced that 14 schools will move to virtual learning due to the overnight high winds that have caused power outages through the city.

Students and staff who attend the following schools will participate in virtual learning remotely today:

Added

- Brown Street Academy
- Grant Gordon Learning Center

Previously Announced

- Albert E. Kagel School
- Escuela Vieau
- Lloyd Barbee Montessori School
- James Fenimore Cooper School
- Ralph Waldo Emerson School
- Humboldt Park School
- Milwaukee Parkside School for the Arts
- Frances Starns Discovery Learning Center
- Starns Early Childhood Center
- Oliver Wendell Holmes School
- Dr. George W. Carver Academy of Mathematics and Science
- James E. Groppi High School

Students and families can expect additional outreach from their child's teacher on instructions for virtual learning.