PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, WI – Today, Derrick Van Orden received the endorsement of Wisconsin's 3rd District Republican Party, highlighting the unity of the district's Republicans behind Derrick's strong leadership and commitment to the betterment of our nation.

3rd Congressional District Republican Party Chairman Bill Feehan released the following statement accompanying the endorsement of Derrick:

Derrick is a true public servant, a man who has dedicated his entire life to service of this great country. He has made sacrifices most of us can't imagine to make our country safer, stronger, and to secure our freedoms that the founders fought so passionately for. We as a party stand together behind Derrick Van Orden because he is the type of person we need in Congress: fearless, firm, and patriotic. We will finally be represented by a leader who will put people over politics, and we could not be prouder to stand behind anyone else.

Derrick Van Orden thanked the 3rd District Republicans with the following statement:

I humbly thank the 3rd District Republican Party and all of our grassroots warriors who have joined in this effort to Win America Back. We are united as a party and as a community, and I pledge to you that I will continue to work tirelessly to make this country a better place for our children and grandchildren. It would be my greatest honor to represent the incredible Americans in the 3rd District as your Congressman, and I thank you for your endorsement.
